Lay a Wreath?

If you, or an organisation you are a member of, would like to lay a wreath at the ceremony in person, please register in advance by 6pm on Friday 5th November using this method:

Phone 01270 262636 and choose option 4.

Details on how this will work will be conveyed to you nearer the day, and will depend on the Government guidelines at that time.

Government Guidance for Remembrance Events

At the time of writing there were no specific Government guidelines in place for Remembrance Events.

However, Cheshire East Council's Public Health department at this point of time are requiring all event organisers to be cautious. Where possible and practical introduce a track and trace system, provide sanitiser at regular touch points, prepare signage to encourage social distancing and where needed advise on use of face coverings.

Please check the Government website on the day to ensure that the guidance has not changed if you plan to attend in person.

Order of Service

The service will be led by a representative from Shavington Methodist Church and a representative from St Mark's Church, Shavington.

Watch along at home by visiting or bring it with you on the day.

If you decide to attend the service in person, please make sure that you scan this QR code with your NHS COVID-19 App to check-in 10.40am - A welcome from Shavington-cum-Gresty Parish Council.

Representatives from Shavington Methodist Church and St Mark's Church, Shavington will commence the service.

We meet in the presence of God.

We meet to remember with thanksgiving and sorrow those whose lives, in wars and conflicts past and present, have been given and taken away.

We meet to pray for all who in bereavement, disability and pain continue to suffer the consequences of fighting and terror.

We meet to commit ourselves to work in penitence and faith for reconciliation between the nations that all people may, together, live in freedom, justice and peace.

Hymn – I Vow to Thee my Country

Sung by a representative from Shavington Village Festival Committee.

I vow to thee, my country, all earthly things above,
Entire and whole and perfect, the service of my love:
The love that asks no question, the love that stands the test,
That lays upon the altar the dearest and the best;
The love that never falters, the love that pays the price,
The love that makes undaunted the final sacrifice.

And there's another country, I've heard of long ago,
Most dear to them that love her, most great to them that know;
We may not count her armies, we may not see her King;
Her fortress is a faithful heart, her pride is suffering;
And soul by soul and silently her shining bounds increase,
And her ways are ways of gentleness and all her paths are peace.

Poem – In Flanders Fields

Read by a representative of Cheshire East Council.

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.

We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe:
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Prayers

Representatives from Shavington Methodist Church and a St Mark's Church, Shavington will lead the prayers.

'Let us pray for all who suffer as a result of conflict, and ask that God may give us peace:
for the service men and women who have died in the violence of war, each one remembered by and known to God;
may God give peace.
All God give peace.

For those who love them in death as in life, offering the distress of our grief and the sadness of our loss;
may God give peace.
All God give peace.

For all members of the armed forces who are in danger this day, remembering family, friends and all who pray for their safe return;
may God give peace.
All God give peace.

For civilian women, children and men whose lives are disfigured by war or terror, calling to mind in penitence
the anger and hatreds of humanity;
may God give peace.
All God give peace.

For peacemakers and peacekeepers, who seek to keep this world secure and free;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

For all who bear the burden and privilege of leadership, political, military and religious;
asking for gifts of wisdom and resolve in the search for reconciliation and peace;
may God give peace.

All God give peace.

O God of truth and justice,
we hold before you those whose memory we cherish,
and those whose names we will never know.
Help us to lift our eyes above the torment of this broken world, and grant us the grace to pray for those who wish us harm.

As we honour the past,
may we put our faith in your future;
for you are the source of life and hope,
now and for ever.

All Amen.

Lord's Prayer

All join together in the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name;
Thy kingdom come;
Thy will be done;
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory
For ever and ever.
Amen.

Poem – The Inquisitive Mind of a Child : A Poem for Remembrance Day

Read by a representative of Shavington Primary School.

Why are they selling poppies, Mummy?
Selling poppies in town today.

The poppies, child, are flowers of love.
For the men who marched away.

But why have they chosen a poppy, Mummy?
Why not a beautiful rose?

Because my child, men fought and died
In the fields where the poppies grow.

But why are the poppies so red, Mummy?
Why are the poppies so red?

Red is the colour of blood, my child.
The blood that our soldiers shed.

The heart of the poppy is black, Mummy.
Why does it have to be black?

Black, my child, is the symbol of grief.
For the men who never came back.

But why, Mummy are you crying so?
Your tears are giving you pain.

My tears are my fears for you my child...
For the world is forgetting again.

Hymn – Make me a Channel of your Peace

Sung by a representative from Shavington Village Festival Committee

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there is hatred let me bring your love;
Where there is injury your pardon, Lord;
And where there's doubt true faith in you.

*Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.
Where there's despair in life let me bring hope;
Where there is darkness, only light;
And where there's sadness, ever joy.

*Oh, Master grant that I may never seek
So much to be consoled as to console;
To be understood as to understand;
To be loved as to love with all my soul.*

Make me a channel of your peace.
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned;
In giving to all men that we receive;
And in dying that we're born to eternal life.

The Last Post

The Exhortation

They shall grow not old,
as we that are left grow old,
age shall not weary them,
nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
we will remember them.
All We will remember them.

2 Minutes Silence

Reveille

Laying of Wreaths

The Kohima Epitaph

When you go home, tell them of us and say,
For your tomorrow, we gave our today.

National Anthem

Sung by a representative from Shavington Village Festival Committee

God save our gracious Queen,
Long live our noble Queen,
God save the Queen.
Send her victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign over us,
God save the Queen.

Final Prayer

God grant to the living grace, to the departed rest, to the Church, the Queen, the Commonwealth and all people,
unity, peace and concord,
and to us and all God's servants, life everlasting.

And the blessing of God Almighty,
Father, Son and Holy Spirit be with you all and remain with you always.

Amen.

Lest we forget

We have included a poppy on the back cover of this booklet that can be cut out and placed in your window.
